29 March 2011

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION ON CIVIL LIABILITY FOR BUNKER OIL POLLUTION DAMAGE, 2001

Withdrawal of a declaration and submission of a new declaration by Denmark

The Secretary-General of the International Maritime Organization has the honour to state that he received, on 18 March 2011, a communication from the Government of the Kingdom of Denmark informing that the declaration concerning articles 9 and 10, made at the time of Denmark's ratification of the International Convention on Civil Liability for Bunker Oil Pollution Damage, 2001, has been withdrawn.

The text of the withdrawn declaration is as follows:

"The Government of Denmark declares that, due to its obligations towards the European Community, it shall until further notice not be bound by the provisions of Article 9 of the Convention regarding jurisdiction and Article 10 of the Convention regarding recognition and enforcement."

In the same communication, the Government of the Kingdom of Denmark made the following new declaration:

"Judgements on matters covered by the Convention shall, when given by a court of a European Union Member State other than Denmark, be recognized and enforced in Denmark, according to the relevant internal Union rules on the subject based on the Agreement between the European Community and the Kingdom of Denmark on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgements in civil and commercial matters."
