

Ref. T2-OSS/2.7.1

COLREG.2/Circ.54/Add.2
8 December 2004

TRAFFIC SEPARATION SCHEMES

Postponed date of implementation of the amended traffic separation scheme “In the Singapore Strait”

1 At the seventy-ninth session of the Maritime Safety Committee (1 to 10 December 2004), the Government of Indonesia informed the Organization that the amended traffic separation scheme (TSS) “In the Singapore Strait” adopted by the Committee at its seventy-eighth session and circulated under COLREG.2/Circ.54 will not be implemented on 1 January 2005 as envisaged and that the implementation date had been postponed to 1 July 2005 at 0000 hours UTC.

2 Member Governments are invited to bring this information to the attention of all concerned.
