Extension to the Faroe Islands

Withdrawal of declaration by Denmark

The Secretary-General of the International Maritime Organization has the honour to refer to the International Convention on the Control of Harmful Anti-fouling Systems on Ships, 2001, and to state that he received, on 4 June 2010, a notification from the Government of the Kingdom of Denmark informing him that Denmark has withdrawn its declaration reserving the application of the Convention to the Faroe Islands, made on 19 December 2002, at the time Denmark signed the Convention.

The Convention was, accordingly, extended to the Faroe Islands with effect from 4 June 2010, the date on which the notification was received.
