RESOLUTION TC.1(39)
adopted on 16 June 1994

IMO MEDIUM-TERM PLAN FOR THE INTEGRATION OF WOMEN IN THE MARITIME SECTOR

Promotion of the participation of women
in Maritime Training

THE TECHNICAL CO-OPERATION COMMITTEE,

RECALLING the United Nations System-Wide Medium-Term Plan for Women and Development 1990-1995 (E/1987/52) with particular reference to Sub-programme 5.4 "Technical co-operation, training and advisory activities", encouraging new measures to achieve equal access for women to the full range of technical co-operation and training activities,

NOTING that the IMO Medium-term Plan for the Integration of Women in the Maritime Sector was endorsed by the Technical Co-operation Committee at its thirty-seventh session, during which support was expressed for the Organization's aims to promote the training of women in the maritime sector,

BEING INFORMED of work the Maritime Safety Committee is currently carrying out to revise the 1978 STCW Convention with a view to adoption of a revised instrument in 1995,

1. INVITES the Maritime Safety Committee and the STCW Conference to give special consideration to the equal participation of men and women under the revision of the International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers 1978;
2. INVITES the STCW Conference to invite Governments to highlight the role of women in the seafaring profession and to promote their greater participation at all levels of technical maritime training.
