

RESOLUTION A.96(IV)

RED SEA LIGHTS

THE ASSEMBLY,

RECALLING Resolution A.47(III) which endorsed the view expressed by the Maritime Safety Committee that the efficient functioning of the Red Sea lights at Abu Ail and Jabal at Tair is essential to safe navigation in the area,

NOTING that the Maritime Safety Committee, at its tenth session (MSC X/36, paragraph 99), reviewed the position and expressed serious concern at the state of the lights and the likelihood of further deterioration,

ENDORSES the views of the Maritime Safety Committee,

DECIDES to urge governments concerned to take every practicable step as soon as possible to secure the efficient functioning of these lights in the interests of safe navigation in the area and consequently of the preservation of safety of life at sea.
